

SWOCC Studios 4th Open House!

By Melissa Cohn

Residents got a behind-the-scenes look at the local TV at the fourth annual SWOCC Studio Open House. Over 100 guests stopped in to say hello, munched a great spread of food, and checked out the high-tech equipment. Some took advantage of the chance to get behind the cameras. Others preferred to get in front of the camera in our main studio singing karaoke while others chose to be on camera in studio B for a promotional video produced by the Public Access Promotion Committee. Visitors signed up for the SWOCC orientation so they could start the process in learning how to produce their own show and crew on other shows.

SWOCC Studios is committed to bringing the best in programming to Farmington, Farmington Hills, and Novi. It's our goal to provide timely information on city-related issues like road construction, building development, local elections, among the many community events that take place in all three cities.
