New SWOCC Interns!

We have a whole lot of help and new faces this Summer at SWOCC Studios! Kaitlyn Rich and Drew Loomer are both recent graduates of Novi High School and are working hard to gain some experience before they enter college in the Fall. Matt Irwin is also from Novi High and is going to be a Senior this fall so he wants to gain some experience before he finishes the media program this coming school year. Evan Heiss is currently enrolled at Michigan State and is ready to learn as much as possible about everything to do with production. Maya Turner is finishing up her term at Ferris State by doing a six month internship at SWOCC! And Claire Korejsza, a student at North Farmington High School, is volunteering her time to observe and learn about television production by assisting staff and interns in daily SWOCC life. So be sure to say hello next time you visit SWOCC Studios!
