Blood Drive 2006 at SWOCC Studios

The American Red Cross will hold their 3rd annual Blood Drive at SWOCC Studios on Monday, June 26 from 11 a.m.– 5 p.m.

If you're interested in donating please contact Melissa Cohn to make an appointment. Walk-ins are welcome but will be taken on a limited basis.

Public Access Promotion Committee

The Downtown Development Committee and the Public Access Promotion Committee worked in a joint effort to videotape the grand opening of the Farmers Market in downtown Farmington. Volunteers from both committees and the public access community helped out that morning. They plan on more tapings this summer. If you're interested in helping contact Brian Golden.

Hands-on edit training will take place on this program, June 6 at 6:30 p.m. at SWOCC Studios. If anyone is interested in attending please contact Brian Golden at 248.701.8112 or bgolden@pastways.info

Farewell & Congrats

Videographer Ben Bell is leaving SWOCC to pursue other avenues in the Video Broadcasting field. We wish him the best of luck! Production assistant, Jeremy Bowerman has been promoted to full-time Videographer.

SWOCC Around the Block

This month check out SWOCC Around the Block, as we feature the Farmington/Farmington Hills Chamber's annual "Taste of Two Cities", an up-close look at the Holocaust Memorial Museum, "Focus on the Mission" photography exhibit, a Warner Mansion unveiling and get a preview of Farmington's summer construction.

SWOCC Around the Block cablecasts on Channel 15:
Tuesdays at 8 p.m.
Thursdays at 4:30 p.m.
Saturdays at 6:30 p.m.

SUMMER INTERNS

Jessie Stith graduated from Milford High School in 2002, and recently graduated from the University of Michigan in April 2006 with a B.A. in Film and Video Studies. Her short animation, a stop-motion video entitled "Legos of the Caribbean", won Best Animation at the Lightworks Student Film Festival in April 2006.

Steve Fisher is currently enrolled at Specs Howard graduating this month with a video concentration. He plans on continuing his education studying Film. He hopes to work on big budget Hollywood films editing. In his spare time he enjoys golf, fishing, and hacky sack.
