"Open for Business" Press Conference to Air on Local Cable

SWOCC Studios videotaped the Michigan Municipal League and Michigan Townships Association "Open for Business" press conference. The event kicked off a statewide effort to prevent the telephone companies from bypassing local franchise agreements that ensure that all families and businesses in a community have the same rights to important video and broadband services. Locally elected officials from prominent Michigan townships and cities spoke including Farmington Hills Mayor, Vicki Barnett.

SWOCC will cablecast this program in its entirety on:
